SCHOOL FEES

Legislation of Public School Fees:

Public school fees are a statutory duty in terms of the South African Schools Act and not a contractual duty. Furthermore, the issue of whether a particular parent admitted the child to Rand Park High School or signed an admission form is irrelevant to their liability.

Moreover, the South African Schools Act's wide definition of parents in terms of Section 1 is designed to ensure that public schools do not become embroiled in disputes between parents, and that both parents are jointly and severally liable for the payment of school fees.

A Divorce Order and/or Maintenance Agreement are not binding on third parties but only between the divorcing parties. To this end, a maintenance agreement cannot be enforced on Rand Park High School being a third party.

The interpretation that burdens both parents with responsibility for school fees is consistent with the injunction in Section 28(2) of the Constitution that a child's best interest is of paramount importance in every matter concerning the child.

School Fees are levied in terms of Section 38 and 39 of the South African Schools Act No. 84 of 1996. In terms of Section 40 of this Act, parents have a legal obligation to pay school fees. The School does not have to enter into a contract with parents/legal guardians/caregivers to pay school fees.

Important Information:

1. Payment of school fees is a statutory duty, which a learner's parents/legal guardians/caregivers must pay. The parents/legal guardians/caregivers are jointly and severally liable unless and to the extent of them being exempted.
2. In order to enforce the payment of school fees as a statutory duty, all monies received by the school will be allocated to the oldest outstanding school fees first.
3. School fees are due and payable annually, in advance, at the beginning of each school year and such payment is compulsory to the extent that an exemption from the payment of school fees has been granted.
4. However, purely in order to reduce the financial burden on parents, TEN EQUAL instalments commencing January and ending October of each academic year will be acceptable.
5. Alternative payment dispensations will be allowed as presented and approved by the School Governing Body's Finance Committee, subject to the clear understanding that:
 - These undertakings in no way change the fact that the payment of school fees is a statutory duty and not a voluntary agreement, particularly not a credit agreement as defined in terms of the National Credit Act No. 34 of 2005.
 - Should parents/legal guardians/caregivers default and fail to pay any single installment by the due date, the full amount that is outstanding will immediately become due and payable.

Parents'/Legal Guardians' Initials
---------------------------------------	--	--

6. The School Governing Body may, by process of law, enforce the payment of school fees by parents/legal guardians/caregivers in terms of The South African Schools Act No. 84 of 1996, Section 40, and reserves the right to:
 - Hand over defaulting parents/legal guardians/caregivers, irrespective of any Maintenance and/or Court Orders which may exist between the parties, to a third party collector.
 - Share personal details of defaulting parents/legal guardians/caregivers with Rand Park High School's appointed third party debt collectors in an attempt to recover outstanding school fees.
 - List the defaulting parent/legal guardian/caregiver with the relevant credit bureau, in the event of any school fees due not being paid.
 - Claim that all legal costs - including interest, attorney/client fees and collection costs for the recovery of school fees - will be for the account of the parent/legal guardian/caregiver.
7. Exemption from school fees is available to qualifying parents in terms of the South African Schools Act No. 84 of 1996, Section 39:
 - Exemptions are granted as stipulated in the Exemption Regulation Gazette No. 29311 dated 13 October 2006.
 - Parents who wish to be exempted from the payment of school fees must apply annually to the SGB.
 - The income of both parents/legal guardians/caregivers, irrespective of their marital status or the maintenance agreement, is used in the calculation of exemption.
 - The exemption amount granted is based on the Gross Annual Income of both parents/legal guardians/caregivers and not affordability.
8. The parents/legal guardians/caregivers are OBLIGED to notify the school in writing of any change of personal information.
9. The legislation of school fees will be valid from the day on which the learner is admitted to Rand Park High School to the day on which the learner officially leaves the school.
