Glamour, Heartbreak & Applause for Rand Park High's Another Gatsby

Learners at Rand Park High School captivated audiences with this year's major production, Another Gatsby, a dazzling adaptation of the novel, "The Great Gatsby" by F Scott Fitzgerald. Set in the glamorous and emotionally charged world of the Roaring Twenties, the production combined spectacle, heartbreak and tragedy in a memorable theatrical experience.

The production built steadily towards a climax, with learners exploring themes of love, ambition, illusion and loss through strong performances, striking costumes and confident storytelling. A standout feature was the live band, made up of talented learners from across all grades, whose polished musical accompaniment added energy, atmosphere and depth to the production.

Another Gatsby proved to be another ambitious and successful production by Rand Park High School, earning enthusiastic applause and showcasing the exceptional talent and teamwork of the school's learners and staff. Congratulations to all involved.
