5. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Scope of award: The scholarship is a partial contribution towards academic tuition fees only and is credited to the learner's school fee account. It excludes the enrolment initial payment, uniforms, books, study requirements, tours, stationery, sports kit/equipment and other school-related expenses.

Admission: Any scholarship is conditional upon the learner being successfully placed at Rand Park High School by the Gauteng Department of Education (GDE). Parents/guardians remain responsible for completing the required GDE online admission application.

Selection and acceptance: Shortlisted applicants and their parents/guardians may be invited to an interview. Successful applicants will be notified in writing and must accept the offer in writing within seven (7) working days, failing which the offer may be withdrawn.

Duration and re-award: A scholarship is awarded for one academic year only. A re-award for the following year is not automatic and requires submission of the School's Re-award Motivation Form by the applicable closing date. Scholarships are reviewed annually to ensure continued eligibility. Re-award is contingent upon the recipient's active participation in the life of the school and adherence to all school rules and policies.

Ongoing requirements: The learner must maintain excellent academic results, participate in at least one Rand Park High School extramural activity, attend progress reviews with the Dean of the Grade when requested, comply with the School's Code of Conduct, and pass the academic year.

Reduction or withdrawal: The School may reduce or revoke the scholarship if the learner does not meet the ongoing requirements above. The scholarship will be revoked if the learner is de-registered from Rand Park High School during the academic year.

Early departure: If the learner leaves Rand Park High School during the first three school terms of the academic year, the scholarship amount will be charged back to the learner's school fee account and the parents/guardians will be liable for the resulting amount owing.

Allocation of award: The school reserves the right not to award any advertised scholarships.
