Athletics A-League Champions

Rand Park High School has been crowned the 2026 Inter-High Athletics A-League champions following an exciting meeting held on Monday, 24 August at Ruimsig Stadium.

Six schools competed for the title, with Rand Park taking on Bryanston High School, Roosevelt High School, Krugersdorp High School, Edenvale High School and Queens High School.

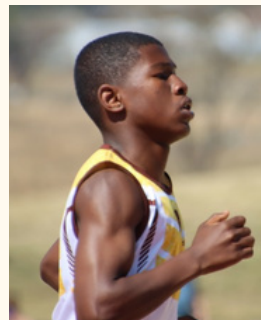

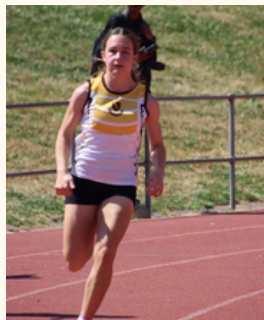

The competition produced a full day of spirited track athletics events.

Rand Park's Athletics A-Team delivered a strong performance - excelling in the sprint events and relays - to secure valuable points towards the overall standings.

Adding to the celebrations, we were also awarded the Spirit Trophy.

Winning the Inter-High championship made it a memorable day for the school and a fitting reward for the commitment of the athletes and coaches.

See the Sports Results page for scores.

ONE-ACT PLAY FESTIVAL 2026

Rand Park High School's annual One-Act Play Festival returned on Thursday, 13 August 2026, showcasing an entertaining evening of learner-directed theatre.

The Goblin City, directed by Riley Johnson Van Der Ree and Kayla Barnard and produced by Evidence Ugwu, was named Best Play. The production also claimed the top acting honours, with Yashmita Packery receiving the award for Best Actress and Logan Van Der Schyff named Best Actor.

Congratulations to the winners and well done to the talented casts and crews of all four productions for their hard work and commitment to this year's festival.
